Cape Wickham

Experience two of the best coastal courses on the planet

Play as an individual, a couple or a larger group

Funds raised for Make-A-Wish foundation

The 8th EF King Island Classic, will be played at Ocean Dunes and Cape Wickham over the week-end of 22-23 March, 2025 and is one of the best weekends on the Tasmanian golfing calendar. This brilliant event provides the opportunity to play bucket list courses across a peak season week-end, whilst also supporting an amazing cause at the same time. A true win-win!

The event is a stableford format with quality prizes on offer from our friends at Callaway. But prizes are simply a bonus as it is all about having a great weekend away experiencing two of the best coastal courses on the planet - including Australia's Number One ranked courses Cape Wickham.

The beauty of this event also is that you can book as an individual, a couple or a larger group and everyone is guaranteed to play with their friends. And you also have the option to come add an extra day where you can play and stay at Cape Wickham the day before the competition begins.

Amazingly over $165k has been raised for Make-A-Wish foundation across the first seven events including $32k in 2024. Click here for an article about the 2024 event. Start speaking to your group and secure your place now so you don't miss out.
